PANIC AMONG YOUNG WOMEN.

Four hundred young women milliners employed in the upper floors of a 12-story building at 652 Broadway, N. Y., became panic-stricken yesterday when a fire on the fifth floor filled the stairways so full of smoke that they were impassable. The salesroom and storage room of Alfred A. Zemer on the fifth floor already was blazing fiercely when the flames and smoke burst into the hallways, spreading the alarm throughout the building, which was crowded like a hive.

Screaming with fright, the girls first attempted to find an exit by the stairs, but they were stopped by the smoke at the seventh floor. A number of them made a frantic dash for the windows on that floor and jumped to the roof of an adjoining building, a story or more below the windows.

Hundreds of other girls dashed for the elevators, two of which were kept running through the smoke-filled shaft. Frightened by the danger and almost asphyxiated by the smoke, many of the girls were fainting or unconscious when the elevator reached the ground floor. Others were hysterical with fright and created a great commotion by their screams.

A Traveling Man's Experience.

"I must tell you my experience on an east bound O. R. & N. R. R. train from Pendleton to Le Grande, Ore., writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. 'I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic; her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a death-like look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whiskey. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost in Le Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into Le Grande the she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car.' For sale by W. F. O'Leigh & Co., and Richard Gibson.

BRIDE KILLS HERSELF.

Dressed in her wedding gown, 16-year old Mrs. Louis Yerss, bride of less than a year, yesterday fired a revolver shot through her heart while alone in her husband's home, 168 east Twenty-second street, Bayonne, N. J. Melancholy, resultant from approaching maternity, is the only reason assigned for the suicide of the girl, whose 20-year-old husband on going home for luncheon found the bride cold in death, stretched upon a bed, the revolver still clasped in her right hand, while the bullet hole through the white wedding gown told its terrible story.

The girl-wife must have begun preparations for death as soon as she had kissed her husband a loving adieu when he started that morning for his work at the Standard Oil works. The breakfast dishes were untouched, and the house showed that she had done nothing save make herself ready to die. She donned her white wedding gown, which had been carefully laid away ever since her wedding day, and in addition she put on her white stockings and shoes, which had formed part of her bridal costume.

Then she locked all the doors, bolted the windows, lay down in bed and shot herself through the heart.

PENSION FOR EARLY.

A pension was granted yesterday by the United States government to John R. Early, a supposed victim of leprosy, who now is being maintained by the authorities of the District of Columbia. He was for a considerable time a soldier in the United States army, and it was during his service in the Philippines that he probably contracted the disease with which he is afflicted. He was discharged from the army at Plattburg barracks, New York, in 1904. Pension Commissioner Warner issued to him a pension certificate for $12 a month from July 12, 1907, to August 31, 1908, and a certificate for $72 a month to date from August 31, 1908. An effort is being made to have the authorities of the United States Soldiers' Home, at Washington, assume the burden of Early's care, but the arrangements have not been concluded.

"I took two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets last night, and I felt fifty per cent. better than I have for weeks," says J. J. Firestone of Allegan, Mich. "They are certainly a fine article for biliousness." For sale by W. F. O'Leigh & Richard Gibson. Samples free.
